SWEET BRIAR: 1901-1978

HISTORICAL SKETCH

Sweet Briar College was founded in the first year of this century by Indiana Fletcher Williams in memory of her only daughter, Daisy, who died in 1884 at the age of sixteen. Mrs. Williams was a daughter of Elijah Fletcher, who came to Virginia from Ludlow, Vermont, in the early years of the nineteenth century and taught school in Amherst County. Later he moved to Lynchburg where he owned and published a newspaper, became a civic leader, and amassed large holdings of land as well as a considerable fortune.

At the time of Mrs. Williams' death in 1900, her estate consisted of more than eight thousand acres of land comprising in large part the Sweet Briar plantation, and over half a million dollars. Under the terms of her will the Trustees were directed to incorporate an educational foundation in the state of Virginia, to establish it as a perpetual memorial to her daughter, and to turn over to it all property left to them in trust.

It was Mrs. Williams' desire, according to the following excerpt from her will, that "It shall be the general scope and object of the school to impart to its students such education in sound learning, and such physical, moral, and religious training as shall in the judgment of the Directors best fit them to be useful members of society."

The College was chartered in February, 1901, with a self-perpetuating Board of Directors: the Right Reverend A. M. Randolph, the Reverend T. M. Carson, the Reverend Arthur P. Gray, Stephen R. Harding, the Reverend Carl E. Grammer, Dr. J. M. McBryde, Judge Legh R. Watts.

At the first meeting of the Board of Directors it was determined that the foundation should be free from denominational control but distinctly religious in character, and that it should maintain the highest academic standards, uniting classical and modern ideals of education.

The College opened formally in September, 1906, with fifty-one students, including fifteen day students. The A.B. degree, granted for the first time in 1910, was soon accepted for graduate work in leading universities of the country.

By 1921, Sweet Briar held membership in the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, the American Association of University Women, and the American Council on Education, and was approved by the Association of American Universities. Sweet Briar is a member of the College Entrance Examination Board, it is on the approved list of the American Chemical Society, and its chapter of Phi Beta Kappa is the Theta of Virginia, authorized in 1949.

In May, 1927, a Board of Overseers was established. It consists of the seven Directors and additional members elected by the Directors for four-year terms. The active oversight of the College is in the hands of this larger board whose decisions are submitted to the Board of Directors for ratification. Alumnae representation on the Board of Overseers was instituted in 1934. At the present time four who are nominated by the alumnae serve as Overseers. Beginning in 1973, each graduating class elects one of its members to serve a special two-year term on the Board of Overseers.

Sweet Briar's first five presidents were women. Dr. Mary K. Benedict held the office from the opening in 1906 until 1916. Dr. Emilie Watts McVea served from 1916 to 1925, Dr. Meta Glass from 1925 to 1946, Dr. Martha B. Lucas from 1946 to 1950, and Dr. Anne Gary Pannell from 1950 to 1971. Harold B. Whiteman, Jr., began his administration as sixth president of the College in 1971.

The Student Petition (October 17, 1906)

The students of Sweet Briar College, believing that there is dignity and honor in student government, desire individual and community responsibility for the conduct of students in matters not strictly academic.

We, therefore, petition the President and Faculty for legislative and executive control in certain matters. We ask:

- I. Right to control quiet and order in all places about the buildings and campus that are not under the immediate control of a member of the Faculty.
- II. Permission, with the advice and approval of the Faculty, to extend our power as occasion arises and we prove worthy to be vested with greater power and authority.
- III. Permission to make such additions to the above as we may feel are necessary, with the consent and approval of the President and Faculty.

The Reply of the Faculty (October 20, 1906)

The Faculty of Sweet Briar College endorses most cordially the desire of the student body to assume responsibility for the conduct of individual students in non-academic matters. Therefore, the Faculty accords permission to frame a constitution embodying laws regulating the points specified in the petition—said constitution to be submitted to the Faculty for endorsement.

CONSTITUTION OF THE STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION OF SWEET BRIAR COLLEGE*Introduction

The charter of Sweet Briar College grants to the Board of Directors "full and complete management and control" of the College and its affairs. Subject to delegation of this authority by the Board, responsibility for the governance of the College is shared by the Administration, the Faculty, and the students.

1. The Administration has the primary responsibility for the physical security, health and welfare of the College; for the maintenance, improvement and preservation of all facilities; for the financial stability of the College and for its external relations with governmental agencies, other institutions, members of the wider Sweet Briar community, and the public at large.
2. The Faculty, through its officers and committees, including students whenever appropriate, and its established procedures has responsibility for all academic programs, including degree requirements, the awarding of academic honors, the grading system and the course offerings.

3. The Student Government Association, through its own officers, committees, and constitutional procedures, shall bear responsibility for establishing, maintaining, interpreting and enforcing regulations in the following areas, subject to legal restrictions or stated policies of the College:
  - a. extracurricular activities (except in those instances where state, regional, and national sports organizations have authority over inter-collegiate athletics).
  - b. residential hall activities (except those matters deemed by the President to affect the health and safety of the community or the property of the College).
4. As the chief executive of the College, the President has the responsibility of implementing all matters properly referred to him by the other decision-making groups of the College. In matters of conflict, the President's judgment shall prevail, subject only to the superior authority of the Board of Directors, to whom appeal may be made.

Preamble

B. Guidelines for Elections and Nominations

1. To be a candidate for an elected office, a student must sign her name on a ballot at a time and place designated by the Vice-President of the Student Government Association. Those students who are away in their junior year may either nominate themselves or be nominated by resident students. Resident students may also nominate other on-campus students with the permission of the student and/or students involved.
2. All nominations will be sent to the Dean. If the Dean should question the students eligibility for extracurricular activities, she will consult with the Vice-President of the Student Government Association concerning the matter.

3. Candidates of the different group elections will be asked to participate in an open panel discussion once the candidates' statements have been approved and posted.
  4. Student Government elections shall be conducted by the Student Government Association at the time it deems best. Elections should be held before the first of April.

  6. Newly-elected officers, with the exception of the House and Hall Presidents, shall assume their duties in the beginning of April with the understanding that old officers complete already-begun projects and represent the students at the Spring Board of Overseers Meeting, though both groups of officers will be present.

- C. 1. Any student running unopposed will have her name placed on the ballot along with provision for a written "no vote." In this instance, a majority of "no votes" will call for another election to be held at a time set by the Vice-President of the Student Government Association after consultation with the Executive Board.
2. The winner of an election in which there are three or more candidates running, must have at least a ten-percent plurality of votes. A simple majority suffices in a two-way race.
  3. Ballots which are cast as abstentions are counted toward the majority vote whereas a ballot which contains blank or uncompleted sections forfeits its right to be counted for that office.
  4. The counting of ballots shall be done by a subcommittee of the Executive Board, chaired by the Vice-President of the Student Government Association and consisting of the class presidents.
  5. Any student who finds that she will not be on campus during the hours on election day may obtain an absentee ballot from the Vice-President of the Student Government Association prior to the election.

HONOR SYSTEM

The Honor System, a workable system of mutual trust which has been incorporated into all aspects of life at Sweet Briar, consists of three principles of honor upon which the community operates. These principles are: the validity of one's word, the honesty of one's work, and respect for the property of others. While allowing students a greater degree of individual responsibility, the Student Government Association Rules and Honor System serve to establish a cohesive sense of community living. When a student assumes this responsibility, it is believed that she will recognize the rights of others and maintain consideration for these rights. This system operates for the benefit of the whole and the individual only when each individual accepts her responsibility to the whole. IGNORANCE IS NO EXCUSE.

The Honor System is based on the fundamental belief that harmony in community living is best achieved when it has as its basis honor and mutual trust. The Honor System at Sweet Briar College is constructed so as to uphold these three principles which we believe to be the core of individual and community honor:

- 1) Integrity of one's word
- 2) Respect for the property of others
- 3) Honesty in academic work (including preparation of classroom work, papers, laboratory work and notebooks, tests and examinations).

Each student is required, under pledge, to adopt these standards and to uphold them during the duration of her career at Sweet Briar.

After passing the Student Government Association test at the beginning of her first year at Sweet Briar, every student is expected to sign the honor pledge, without reservation, indicating that she will adhere to the principles of the Association as long as she is a member thereof.

EACH TIME A SWEET BRIAR STUDENT SIGNS HER NAME TO ANYTHING, SHE ACKNOWLEDGES HER PROMISE TO UPHOLD THE HONOR PLEDGE!

I. SWEET BRIAR HONOR PLEDGE

I PLEDGE THAT I WILL GUARANTEE THE VALIDITY OF MY WORD, MAINTAIN ABSOLUTE HONESTY IN MY WORK, AND RESPECT THE PROPERTY OF OTHERS. REALIZING THAT THESE STANDARDS ARE AN INTEGRAL PART OF LIFE AT SWEET BRIAR, I HEREBY ASSUME MY OBLIGATION TO UPHOLD THEM. I WILL REPORT MYSELF AND ASK OTHERS TO REPORT THEMSELVES FOR ANY INFRACTION OF THIS PLEDGE.

In order to avoid external controls as much as possible we depend upon certain means of self-enforced discipline.

1. The student must report herself for any infraction of the Sweet Briar Honor System. If there is cause to think that specific infractions are occurring, judicial representatives, in accordance with judicial procedures, have the power to ascertain whether or not this is true.

2. The student is first of all responsible for her own behavior. If she has reasonable knowledge of a breach of the pledge, she is honor-bound, by her signature, to ask the offender to report herself. If the offender fails to report herself, it is within another student's power to report to the proper Student Government Association officer. Signing the pledge does not commit a student to report an offender, but it does commit her to ask the offender to report herself.

3. Students are reminded that once a Judicial case has been decided there is to be no further discussion by those directly or indirectly involved.

Any infraction of the Sweet Briar Rules and Regulations which involves lying, cheating, or stealing is considered a breach of honor.

An honor regulation is one which the student has pledged herself to uphold. The student is honor-bound to report herself and to ask other students to report themselves for infractions of the honor regulations. Such infractions will be considered honor offences and as such will be punished with severity.

Students should realize that every other student has the same obligations to the community in upholding the Honor System. Personal feelings and/or relationships should have no bearing upon fulfilling this responsibility. In maintaining the spirit of an honorable community and of a just judicial system, students must respect the decisions made by the Judicial Committee, a body elected by the students. Breaking this spirit may serve to alienate the individual or create disturbance or uneasiness among the community.

II. ACADEMIC HONESTY

THE VALIDITY OF THE SWEET BRIAR DEGREE DEPENDS UPON THE INTEGRITY OF THE WORK WHICH IT REPRESENTS. Therefore, principles of academic honesty are an essential part of the Sweet Briar Honor System. In accordance with these principles the following regulations have been established:

A. Examinations and tests

1. All tests and examinations are given under the Honor System. The student's signature signifies that the information given is her own on a test or paper. It is regarded as a guarantee of honest work. (As a reminder to all students, each is required sign a printed pledge on every examination that she has take. In addition, on every paper and test, each student is uiured to write "I PLEDGE" in addition to signing her name.)
2. Only those materials needed for the examination may be brought into the examination room. For their own protection students are advised not to bring notebooks into classrooms where tests and examinations are to be held.

B. Papers and plagiarism

1. The presentation of the words or ideas of another as one's own work is plagiarism. The wording used by others in expressing even commonly known facts is private property, and to include it in a paper as though it were one's own, is dishonest. Ideas and facts not generally known and not commonly accepted still bear the personal impress of the men who formulated or discovered them, and it is unfair for the student to present such facts and theories as though they were her own, even if she changes the phrasing their originator used to express them. The student may use another person's work only if due credit is given.

- a. Credit is given for the words of another by enclosing them in quotation marks or by indenting and single-spacing them.
  - b. Credit is given for the fact or idea of another, or the paraphrase or summary of another's work, by a footnote specifying the source. Acknowledgement must be made even though the student expresses the ideas and facts in words different from the source.
  - c. A footnote must be used to show exact source. A quoted passage may range from a single word, to a phrase, sentence, paragraph, or series of paragraphs.
  - d. Every quotation must be exact. If words or phrases within a quotation are omitted for the sake of brevity, three dots should be used to indicate the omitted portion.
  - e. If such words as pronouns or proper names in a quotation are not clear, an identifying or explanatory word may be inserted by the student. This editorial material must be enclosed in square brackets.
2. Examples of the dishonest use of material follows:
- a. This is a paragraph from The Rise Of American Civilization by Charles A. and Mary Beard:

When the first Continental Congress assembled in Carpenter's Hall in Philadelphia, it was found that many of the ablest men in America had been sent to speak for the discontented groups in the colonies. Some were bold: Gladson of South Carolina was for an immediate attack on General Gage in Boston. Others were cautious: Dickinson of Pennsylvania thought that a respectful petition to the king would restore harmony; Washington, like Cromwell before him, apparently awaited the decree of Providence.

The following is not an exact copy of the original, but it contains some phraseology which was formulated by the Beards and which therefore belongs to them. To hand in as an original paper one containing this paragraph without giving credit to the Beards would be dishonest.

Among the members of the first Continental Congress, which met in Philadelphia in 1774, were some of the most capable men in America. They had been sent to speak for the discontented groups in the colonies. Some of the delegates, like Gladson of South Carolina, favored bold, decisive action. Others, like Dickinson of Pennsylvania, were more cautious, believing that a respectful appeal to the king would lead to a solution of their problems. Washington apparently awaited the decree of Providence.

In the following paragraph, none of the wording employed by the Beards remains, but the whole framework of the paragraph, the ideas, and their arrangement, has been retained. The inclusion of this paragraph in a paper as if it were original work would be dishonest.

Many of the wisest men in the colonies were among the delegates of the first Continental Congress. There was a great difference of opinion among these men about what ought to be done concerning the grievances of the colonies. There were those who favored prompt decisive action. Gladson of South Carolina, for instance, advocated attacking the British troops in Boston at once. There were others who believed that a deferential appeal to the king would bring about a redressing of their wrongs. Washington seemed to be content with a policy of watchful waiting for what fate had in store. No wonder that John Adams declared the Congress was part Whig, part Tory, and part mongrel.

The sum of these principles, however, is not that it is impossible to utilize the work of the Beards. The material in this paragraph may be used in several ways. (In the first place, it may be quoted entirely or in part, a footnote being used to refer to the source of the quotation. In the second place, all or part of the paragraph may be used as an indirect quotation.) In indirect quotation the writer does not reproduce exactly the words of his source but presents the ideas in his own words, at the same time acknowledging his indebtedness. Paragraph 3 might be used for instance, after some such introduction as this: "According to Charles A. and Mary R. Beard in The Rise of American Civilization, many of the wisest men in the colonies were . . . etc." Finally, the facts in the paragraph or some of them might be used without borrowing either the phraseology or the organization employed by the Beards, credit being duly given them in a footnote.

- b. The following is quoted in its entirety from Writing Research Papers: A Complete Guide by James Lester:<sup>1</sup>

the content is strange enough, indeed baffling enough, while the artistic expression of it is flawless.

Student Version A

The most remarkable novel in English is Wuthering Heights. It brings forth an individual apprehension of the nature of man and life; therefore it is perfect in the rarest way. The artistic expression is flawless, but the content is strange, indeed baffling.

This piece of writing is plagiarism in its most deplorable form. The student has simply reversed the order of each sentence, retaining the essential phrasing. He provides no documentation whatever, which implies to the reader that these sentences are entirely his original creation.

Student Version B

Wuthering Heights is a great English novel. It is perfect in the rarest way: it provides an individual apprehension of man's nature. The artistic expression is flawless, although the content is strange and baffling.<sup>1</sup>

This student's version is also plagiarism, even though he carefully documents the citation. He has obviously copied almost directly from his source, changing only a few words and phrases. His method is neither summary nor paraphrase. This error may be avoided by direct quotation or, preferably, by scholarly paraphrase that may include some direct quotation of any strikingly significant or well-worded ideas.

Student Version C

Walter Allen insists that the "artistic expression" of Wuthering Heights is flawless.<sup>1</sup> Allen admits that the content is strange and even baffling, but he argues that the novel is perfect because it accurately presents "an intensely individual apprehension of the nature of man and life."<sup>2</sup>

This version represents a satisfactory handling of the source material. The authority being cited is identified and acknowledged at the outset, the substance of his comment is well expressed in the student's own language, and a key idea in the original, one strikingly worded, is directly quoted, so as to give full credit where the credit is due. The student has been wholly honest to his source, and he has made effective use of the authority for his own purposes.

ACADEMIC RULINGS

All students are expected to be familiar with the academic regulations and procedures in this section, which consists of excerpts from the Faculty Rulings. Other Faculty Rulings will be found in the catalog of the College. A student who does not understand any Ruling should consult the Dean. Ignorance of the regulations will not be an acceptable excuse for failure to comply with them.

A. Registration, Changes of Program, Schedules

1. a. Preliminary registration of students in courses takes place in the Spring Term at a time designated by the Registrar.
b. Final registration for the Fall, Winter and Spring Terms takes place on the dates specified in the College Calendar.
c. The registration of all students must be completed on the dates specified and rooms will not be held for students who do not register unless an acceptable excuse has been presented to the Dean before the official registration date.
d. All students are required to attend the Convocation at the opening of the academic year and any other Convocations designated in the College Calendar as required.
2. a. Changes of program (add/drop) may be made within the first eight class days of the Fall and Spring Terms and the first three days of the Winter Term.
b. A student may not enter a course later than the eighth day of the Fall or Spring Term or the third day of the Winter Term. A student who drops a course after the fifteenth class day of the Fall or Spring Terms (in the case of a freshman in her first term, the twentieth day) or the fifth class day of the Winter Term automatically incurs an F in the course. Exceptions may be made by the Dean at her discretion or on the recommendation of the College Physician. Exceptions shall be reported to the Executive Committee of the Faculty.
c. A change of program is not valid until the completed form is presented to the Registrar by the student.

B. Courses of Instruction, Hours and Credits, Requirements for Graduation and Class Standing

1. a. The announcement of courses to be offered shall each year be presented by each department to the Committee on Instruction for its consideration and recommendation to the Faculty which must approve all changes in course offerings.

- b. No change from the catalog announcement of credits or number of hours of meeting may be made without the approval of the Committee on Instruction.
2. a. Permission to audit a course must be obtained from the instructor.
b. A student must obtain special permission from her faculty adviser and the Dean, and the approval of the College Physician, in order to carry 6 or more units of academic work.
c. With the permission of the instructor a student may register for a course on a "potential credit" basis, provided she is registered for at least 4 courses for credit. The instructor will specify the requirements of the course and the student must meet these requirements as scheduled if she wishes credit. Not later than one week before the end of the classes in the term, the student must notify the instructor and the Registrar's office if she does not wish credit for the course, in which case her course registration will be cancelled.
d. A student may not carry less than 3 units of academic work. The Dean is empowered to grant exceptions to this ruling. If the reason is one of health, the recommendation of the College Physician is required.
3. a. The credit ratio is the ratio of the total number of quality points to the total number of course units taken, excluding physical education grades which are not counted in computing the credit ratio.
b. The credit ratio is computed as follows: for each unit of A, 4 quality points; B, 3; C, 2; D, 1; F, 0. For every unit of plus add .3; for every unit of minus, subtract .3.
c. In computing the ratio, courses which are reported as incomplete, conditioned or failed are counted.
d. Courses completed at another institution, including the Junior Year in France, are not counted in computing the credit ratio.
e. The grade on the comprehensive requirement will not be computed in the credit ratio or major rating.
4. a. In order to be eligible for the Sweet Briar degree, a student must present 38 units, in addition to the required work in physical education, and must have a cumulative credit ratio of not less than 2.00 on the courses taken at Sweet Briar. She must satisfy the other requirements for the degree as specified in the catalog. One unit must be carried in three winter terms.
b. A minimum of two years of residence, one of which must be the final year, is required for the degree and not less than 19 units of credit presented for the degree must have been earned at Sweet Briar.
c. A student who spends the junior year or the fall term of the junior year in a study program away from Sweet Briar College must spend the fall and spring terms of the senior year at Sweet Briar.

- d. Requests to accelerate the degree course must be made to the Dean for referral to the Executive Committee of the Faculty. Normally a request will not be approved unless the student's cumulative credit ratio is at least 2.70 at the end of the fifth term (not counting winter terms) at Sweet Briar.
  - e. Every candidate for the degree must complete the comprehensive requirement in her major field.
  - f. A student may declare, complete and have recorded a double major by fulfilling the requirements of two departments.
  - g. A major credit of not less than 2.00 is required for graduation; that is, a credit ratio of at least 2.00 on all courses offered to fulfill the major requirement.
  - h. The diploma must be made out in the full legal name of the student at the time the degree is conferred.
  - i. A student who after 12 terms of work fails to meet the general credit ratio or the credit ratio in her major required for graduation may be permitted to return to college for one Fall or Spring Term in the year following. She must carry not less than 3 units of work for credit and must have a credit ratio of 2.00 for her entire college course and a credit ratio in her major of 2.00 in order to obtain the degree.
  - j. Exceptional cases may be referred by the Dean to the Executive Committee of the Faculty.
5. a. For senior standing a student must have passed at least 28 units of work and have a cumulative credit ratio of not less than 2.00 and must have met the degree requirements in foreign language and physical education.
- b. For junior standing in the Fall Term a student must have passed 17 units and have a cumulative credit ratio of not less than 2.00.
- c. For sophomore standing a student must have passed 8 units and have a cumulative credit ratio of not less than 2.00.
- d. A student who fails to earn the units or credit ratio or other stipulations required for full class standing will be carried on the roll of her class as a Conditional Sophomore, Junior or Senior and will not be entitled to the social or non-academic privileges of her class until she has achieved full class standing.
6. a. Any student who fails to meet the requirements for class standing will be reported by the Dean to the Committee on Student Eligibility which may place the student on probation or the warning list or may declare her ineligible to continue her college course.
- b. A student who, having been on probation for two consecutive terms, not including the Winter Term, fails to achieve a cumulative credit ratio of 2.00, may be declared ineligible to continue in the college. Exceptions to this rule may be made on the recommendation of the Dean by the Committee on Student Eligibility.

7. a. By agreement among the three colleges, a student at Sweet Briar College may take a course at Lynchburg College or Randolph-Macon Woman's College, provided the course is not currently available at Sweet Briar College. With the approval of the appropriate department at Sweet Briar, the course may be counted toward the Sweet Briar degree and the grade will be counted in the computation of the cumulative credit ratio.
- b. Application for admission should be made to the Dean. No tuition will be charged in addition to that already paid to Sweet Briar College, but the student must pay any extra fees or charges and must make her own arrangements for transportation.

C. Tests, Examinations, Grades

1. a. All tests and examinations are given under the honor system.
- b. The student's signature to any written work is regarded as a pledge of honest work.
2. a. Examinations for each course are held at the end of each Fall and Spring Term and are scheduled in accordance with a plan approved by the Faculty. At the discretion of the instructor an examination may be given in a Winter Term course but no time will be set aside in the College Calendar for Winter Term examinations.
- b. If a department or instructor wishes to substitute some other piece of work for an examination, the Dean must be informed in advance and not later than one month before the end of classes within the term. The Dean will notify the Registrar if no examination is to be given.
- c. A copy of each course examination must be filed in the Registrar's Office.
- d. Course examinations are normally of two hours duration and must be terminated promptly. An instructor who wishes to give an examination of longer duration must request the prior approval of the Dean.
- e. All course work must be completed by the last day of classes in each term.
3. a. If, preceding an examination or hour test, a student feels ill, she shall report immediately to the Infirmary. If the College Physician determines that the student is unable to take the examination or test on schedule, he will advise the student to consult her instructor and arrange the time and place for a deferred examination or test.
- b. If a student is in the Infirmary at the time scheduled for an examination or test, she may, with the permission of the Physician, take it in the Infirmary. By arrangement with the instructor, however, she may take it at a later time after she has left the Infirmary.

- c. Examinations and tests taken in the Infirmary are conducted under the honor system.
  - d. If a student is absent from an examination for reasons other than health, she will receive an F in the course unless she presents for such absence an explanation satisfactory to the instructor and the Dean. If she is absent from a test without a satisfactory excuse, she will receive a grade of F for the test.
4. a. Every department shall require of its majors a demonstration of competence and comprehension in the major field which shall be known as the comprehensive requirement. The work to be done to satisfy this requirement shall be determined in consultation with the junior and senior majors and in light of current faculty policy on this requirement. This consultation shall be held early in each academic year, and the format and procedures decided upon by the department shall be reported to the Dean.
- b. All work in fulfillment of the comprehensive requirement shall be completed not later than three weeks before the end of classes in the spring term of the senior year.
- c. The grade for the comprehensive requirement shall be recorded as "With Distinction," "Satisfactory" or "Unsatisfactory."
- d. The grade for the comprehensive requirement shall be given to the Registrar who will inform the student whether she has passed. Grades may not be given to any student or her parents by an instructor.
- e. If the work done in fulfillment of the comprehensive requirement is found to be unsatisfactory, the student may submit such additional work as shall be determined by the department in consultation with the Dean. In no case shall a student be granted more than one year beyond the date when she would otherwise have graduated to satisfy this requirement.
5. a. Grades are to be assigned with the following meaning: A, indicates excellent work; B, good; C, satisfactory; D, poor but passing; E, condition; F, failure.
- b. i. In the case of year courses the numbers of which are connected by a hyphen, a grade shall be given at the end of the Fall Term but the grade given at the end of the Spring Term shall be the final grade for the year.
- ii. In year courses the numbers of which are separated by a diagonal line, the grade for each term is separately recorded but the Spring Term must be completed if credit is to be allowed for the Fall Term.
- iii. In year courses the numbers of which are separated by a comma, the grade for each term is separately recorded and graded, but the Fall Term is a prerequisite for the Spring Term unless otherwise indicated in the course description in the catalog.
- c. i. If the Fall Term grade in a year course is an F, the instructor shall decide whether the work of the Fall Term must be repeated. If the final grade is an F, the instructor shall decide whether both terms or only the Spring Term must be repeated before a final grade may be given for the course.

- ii. If a grade of F is obtained at the end of the Fall Term of a year course and the course is then dropped, the grade shall be counted for one term only. If the course is continued into the Spring Term and dropped after the fifteenth day of the term, a grade of F will be recorded for the year.
6. a. In case the grade at the end of any term is F, E (Condition) or Incomplete, the instructor shall complete a report thereof in duplicate on a form available in the Dean's Office. This report is to be given to the Dean at the time the grades are reported to the Registrar.
  - b. If a student fails a required course, she must repeat the course either at Sweet Briar or at another institution, subject to the approval of the Dean and the head of the department concerned. If a student fails a required course twice, she may be declared ineligible to remain in college.
  - c. A grade of E (Condition) indicates that, in the judgment of the instructor, the student should be given an opportunity to present further evidence of her proficiency before receiving a final grade for the course because (a) after doing satisfactory work she has failed a final long paper or examination; or (b) her work, while not clearly failure, is not of passing quality, yet a repetition of the course is not desirable.
  - d. An E (Condition) on the Fall Term's work in a year course may be removed by passing a re-examination to be taken within the first two weeks of the Winter Term. At the discretion of the instructor, a student may be allowed to continue in the course without a re-examination; and if the final grade is C or above, the Condition shall be regarded as removed.
  - e. An E (Condition) on a one term course or at the end of a year course may be removed by repeating the course or by passing a re-examination within the first two weeks of the following term. The re-examination must be taken at Sweet Briar. If the student fails to remove the Condition by either method, a grade of F shall be recorded.
  - f. Incomplete indicates that a substantial piece of required work has not been completed but under circumstances which merit an extension of time.
  - g. A grade of I (Incomplete) may be removed only by the completion of the incomplete work within four weeks after the last class day of the term in which the grade of Incomplete was given. Under exceptional circumstances an extension of time may be granted by the Dean in consultation with the instructor. If the Incomplete is not removed within the specified time, the grade of F for the course shall be recorded.

- h. It is the responsibility of a student who receives notice of Condition or Incomplete in a course to communicate with the instructor promptly and make arrangements for the removal thereof or indicate that she proposes to repeat the course or accept a grade of F.
- 7. a. A student with a cumulative credit ratio of at least 2.00 may, with the approval of her adviser, take one course each term on a Pass/Fail basis. A student in her first term at Sweet Briar is not eligible for this option.
- b. The student shall be responsible for meeting all academic obligations of the course, including tests, papers and examinations, and shall be graded on the same basis as the other students in the course. If her final grade is C- or better, she may receive credit toward the degree but the course shall not be counted in the computation of her cumulative credit ratio. The grade of P shall appear on her record. If her final grade is less than C-, she shall not receive credit for the course and the grade of F shall appear on her record but shall not be counted in the computation of her cumulative credit ratio.
- c. A student must choose the course that is to be taken on a Pass/Fail basis not later than the last day for adding courses in each term.
- d. An instructor or department may exclude a course from Pass/Fail. Such courses will be so indicated in the catalog.

D. Advanced Standing, Summer Work

- 1. a. Application for credit at Sweet Briar for work pursued elsewhere must be made to the Dean. In no case will more than 19 units of credit be allowed toward the degree for work taken elsewhere.
- b. Credit is tentative until the student has completed one year's work at Sweet Briar with a credit ratio of at least 2.00.
- c. No credit will be granted for work taken at another institution, including the Junior Year in France, if the grade obtained is less than C-.
- 2. a. Not more than 4 units of credit for summer school work will be allowed toward the degree. Students must obtain in advance the permission of the Dean and the approval of the department concerned for each course taken in summer school if credit is desired.
- b. No credits for summer school work will be allowed in the case of entering freshmen until the student has completed her first year at Sweet Briar with a credit ratio of at least 2.00. If credit is desired, the work must have been taken after graduation from high school.

E. Class Attendance, Due Dates for Papers and Reports

1. a. Students shall remain in the classroom for ten minutes after the second bell has rung but may then leave if the instructor fails to meet the class without notice.
  - b. An instructor must give notice of detailed requirements for papers and other major projects and the due date, so that the student may have a reasonable time to complete them. When the terms of an assignment seem unreasonable, a student, having consulted the instructor first, may then consult the department chairman or the Dean.
  - c. While an earlier date for the completion of term papers or reports may be set by the instructor, the latest date permitted is one week before the end of classes in the Fall and Spring Terms. All work for the Winter Term must be completed by the last day of the term.
2. a. A student is expected to attend all classes and keep all other academic engagements. The responsibility for attendance rests with the student and with the instructor. Accordingly, the instructor shall give the Dean by the 15th of each month the name of any student whose absences, in the instructor's judgment, have been excessive during the preceding month.
  - b. All work missed must be made up promptly, and in advance of an absence if it can be anticipated. The responsibility for making up work is the student's if the absence has been unexcused.
  - c. With the permission of the instructor, a student may change from one section to another in order to make up work. She may not do so in order to remove records of absence or to leave college early before a vacation or recess, or to return late therefrom.
  - d. An excuse for a late return to college after a vacation or recess must be presented to the Dean of Student Affairs before the hour set for return to the college. Students travelling by public transportation without confirmed reservations will not be excused for lateness unless the delay is caused by inclement weather or mechanical failure.
  - e. A student who is absent from classes for more than four weeks may re-enter classes only with the permission of the Dean. Only in exceptional cases will she be permitted to carry a full schedule of courses.
  - f. The Dean may modify at her discretion the operation of any of the rules regarding attendance.

F. Honors

1. General honors are awarded at graduation on the basis of the student's entire undergraduate record, including the comprehensive requirement.

2. The requirement for
  - a. the degree cum laude is a cumulative credit ratio of not less than 3.50.*
  - b. the degree magna cum laude: a cumulative credit ratio of 3.70.*
  - c. the degree summa cum laude: a cumulative credit ratio of 3.90.*
3. Departmental honors as well as general honors may be awarded to students enrolled in the Honors Program. Depending on the quality of the student's work, she may receive the degree with "Honors," "High Honors" or "Highest Honors" in her major field of study in accordance with the stipulations for the Honors Program as approved by the Faculty.
4. "Junior Honors" are awarded at the beginning of the academic year to the members of the Junior Class who have achieved a cumulative credit ratio of not less than 3.30.
5. "Freshman Honors" are awarded at the end of the Fall Term to freshmen who have achieved a credit ratio of 3.30, provided they have carried at least 4 units of graded work and received no grade below C.
6. Sophomores, juniors and seniors who have achieved a term credit ratio of not less than 3.50 at the end of a Fall or Spring Term, provided they have carried at least 4 units of graded work and received no grade below C, may with the approval of the Faculty be named to the Dean's List.

G. The Honor System

1. If an instructor observes a possible breach of the Honor System he will promptly confer with the student involved. If after conferring with the student, the instructor believes that a breach has occurred, he shall urge the student to report herself to the Judiciary Chairman of the Student Government Association. The student shall advise the instructor when she has done so. If the student fails to do so promptly, the instructor shall report the case himself to the Judiciary Chairman.
2. When consulted by a student concerning suspicious work which she has observed, the instructor should advise the student to discuss the case with the Judiciary Chairman of the Student Government Association. If an instructor is in doubt about the best procedure in a given case, he should consult the Dean or the President of the College.
3. Dismissal, suspension and, in the case of academic matters, pledge suspension and probation shall be recorded in the student's permanent record. The record of dismissal, suspension or pledge suspension shall be included in a transcript for a non-graduate, but no such record shall be on a transcript after graduation. Honor probation shall be recorded on a transcript only during the period of probation.

H. Academic Advisers

1. The Dean and the Assistant Dean are available for counseling of students on all matters, though their responsibility lies especially in the academic area.
2. The Assistant Dean serves as special adviser to freshmen and sophomores.
3. At the beginning of the college year, each freshman is assigned a faculty adviser.
4. After a student has chosen her major field in the spring of her sophomore year, her work will be directed by the adviser to majors in her department.
5. The Dean is the general adviser of upperclassmen, of students entering on transfer from other institutions, and of foreign students.

LIBRARY RULES

- A. The borrower who signs the book card is responsible for the prompt and safe return of all books charged to her name. Any book not properly signed out, or not returned promptly, is in violation of the Honor Code and the student is subject to severe discipline by the Judicial Committee of the Student Government Association.

This applies to the Main Library, Art Library and Science Library.

- B. The borrowing period for stack books is three weeks. One renewal is permitted if there are no other requests for the book. Periodicals and reference books do not circulate. Reserve books, which are located behind the Circulation Desk, go out for three hours and overnight.
- C. The fine for overdue books is 5¢ a day for each book for a maximum of $5.00 for each volume. Reserve books accumulate charges of 25¢ for the first hour, 10¢ an hour after this for a maximum of $5.00. Overnight reserves are due before 9:30 a.m. the next day. The borrower will pay the full cost of replacement for a lost book. Books which have been lost should be reported immediately; the overdue fine will be suspended from that date until the book is located. If the material is not located by the end of the session, the cost of replacement as determined by the Librarian must be paid in full by the student. If lost books are found the student's money will be refunded. Bills for overdue and lost books must be settled at the end of both the fall and spring terms or grades and diplomas will be withheld.
- D. Books and periodicals should be considered as college property for general (not private) use. Many are now irreplaceable and need to be handled with care. Never underline or mark a library book and please protect them against bad weather outside the Library. Report any damage to a book to a librarian at the Circulation Desk.
- E. Food or drink must not be brought into any part of the Library. Smoking is permitted in designated rooms only. Ink bottles are a threat to books and furnishings—please leave them at the Circulation Desk where you may refill your pens. (Ball points are preferable anyway.)

Library Collections and Services

The Sweet Briar Library has one of the finest academic collections in this part of Virginia. It includes over 160,000 bound volumes, some of which are rare or unique, and about 850 magazines and newspapers, some in foreign languages and covering all fields, from the scholarly to the currently popular. Most of these are housed in the main building of five floors of stacks, reading rooms, and study areas, but there are two departmental libraries of art-music in Babcock and science in Guion.

In addition, the Library has access to an even greater range of materials through inter-library loan with such collections as those of the University of Virginia and the State Library. It is a member of the Lynchburg Area Library Cooperative which allows students to use the facilities of public, special, and other academic libraries in the region. A lost book fee of $20 has been imposed by the Tri-College Cooperative.

Some of the special collections and facilities worth noting are:

- A. Reading-Reference Room: This is the main service area of the Library where you will find the public catalog; about 1,700 reference works including encyclopedias, periodical indexes, directories, and study guides; the desk of the Readers Services Librarian; study tables and comfortable lounge chairs and sofas. More bibliographies are in the staff work area.
- B. Circulation Desk: Books are checked out and returned here, questions are answered, and reserve books are kept behind the Desk. New books, faculty publications, book bargains for sale, notices of goings-on, and occasional exhibits are displayed in the lobby near the Desk.
- C. Book Stacks: Most of the collection is housed on four levels in the new air-conditioned wing and two more in the old building under the Reference Room. Open and private study carrels, as well as lounge and smoking areas are also in this area. The Dewey Decimal Classification system begins on the lowest level and concludes on the top level. Charts showing the location of the Dewey classes are provided at the public catalog and in the stacks.
- D. East Wing: A separate entrance on the Benedict side of the Library contains two study-seminar rooms, one on the second floor, and also on that floor, there are a handsome meeting room and a balcony with tables, carrels, and lounge chairs to which students have access after the main Library is closed. The Browsing Room on the main floor contains current reading in the form of new novels, mysteries, science fiction, paperbacks, newspapers, and popular magazines. There is also an audio console equipped to play discs and tapes of poetry and drama readings and folk songs.
- E. Rare Book Room: Situated at the head of a spiral marble staircase leading to the second floor is a locked room containing handsome examples of bookmaking, from incunabula to books on the graphic arts and music. Three collections are particularly outstanding: George Meredith, W. H. Auden, and Virginia Woolf. The key is available on request at the Circulation Desk.
- F. Periodicals: Current magazines of general interest, along with national and local newspapers may be found in the Browsing Room. A new periodicals' reading and study area has been created in the former exhibit gallery and displays about 500 current issues of the more than 850 periodicals which the Library receives regularly. Bound issues of back numbers are located on the first level of the stacks, arranged by the Dewey classification number. For the periodical you want, check for this number in the serials' catalogue in the Reference Room or ask for assistance from the Library Staff.

Periodicals do not circulate, but articles from them may be copied for individual use on the Library copying machine. Other periodicals, such as the New York Times are on microfilm, and foreign newspapers are near the bound periodical volume.

- G. Microfilm Room: Straight ahead as you enter the Library there is a microfilm reading area with reading machines and a copier. The New York Times Index, a valuable source of diverse information, is here also.
- H. Education Library: On the ground level below the East Wing is the Kellogg Library which has a small collection of children's literature and reference materials, of interest to those in teacher education as well as to neighborhood youngsters. Teaching manuals and current material on education are in Kellogg; historical and general books are in the stacks.
- I. Staff Area: A working area for staff only is on the main floor and contains the Librarian's office as well as a bibliography section; another staff area, "off-limits" to students, is on the ground level where custodial materials and gift books are kept.
- J. Art-Music Libraries: Located in Babcock, these two collections totaling about 15,000 volumes have reference and reserve books, some journals, and study tables. Students may take out music books; art books do not circulate.
- K. Science Library: In Guion, about 14,000 books and periodicals cover the general fields of science, with special emphasis on biology, chemistry, and physics. Books in some related fields, such as mathematics, are in the main Library, so a student should consult the card catalog, or ask a librarian, to find the volume she wants.

The entire Library staff is anxious to help students find the material they need for writing papers, preparing for examinations and tests, and for the pure pleasure of recreational reading. A suggestion box is available for ideas and requests—please use it, and consult a librarian about any academic problem you may have.

Residence Halls

We hope that every student will take advantage of those aspects of college life which stem from the residence halls.

These are more than sterile dormitories; these are housing units which are small enough to adopt readily the personalities of the women living within.

The residence halls on campus provide opportunities for not only sleep and structured study, but for the free expression of ideas through informal gatherings in lounges and programs sponsored by the residents themselves and by campus clubs and organizations.

B. Dormitory Regulations (including all Campus Housing for Students). The College reserves the right to enter all college facilities at any time to make periodic inspections of its properties.

ANY VIOLATIONS OF ANY OF THE FOLLOWING RULES WILL BE SUBJECT TO A FINE OF AT LEAST $5.00. IN ADDITION, A STUDENT OR ORGANIZATION OR DORMITORY MAY BE CHARGED FOR THE COST OF REPAIRS OR REPLACEMENT RESULTING FROM ANY SUCH VIOLATION OR FOR REPAIRS REQUIRED FOR DAMAGES INFLICTED IN AND OTHER WAY.

1. Animals: Animals may not be brought into the residence halls by students nor kept there nor on the campus. Fines will be $10. Animals will be removed from the dormitory or dormitory area at once by the security police force.

The animal that is unidentifiable as to ownership will be sent immediately to the Humane Society of Amherst. The animal whose ownership is identifiable will be kept by the security police for 48 hours prior to its being transported to the Humane Society. This interval should give the student-owner sufficient time to make arrangements for getting the animal off the campus.

2. Attics: Students are not permitted to go to the attics. If luggage is wanted from the attic, the request must be left in writing in the janitor's box before noon of the day it is needed. Keeping one suitcase in your room for late travel plans is recommended.

Under no circumstances is any student allowed to enter the dorm attics unless they are accompanied by Mrs. Kitchen or one of her assistants. Entry into this forbidden area without proper permission is a violation of House Rules and will be dealt with by House Presidents Council.

The removal of any item from an attic that does not belong to you or that you have not received permission to attain is an honor violation and will be dealt with by the Judicial Committee.

3. Decorating Rooms:

- a. Nothing (including thumb tacks, nails, screws, pins, stickers, tape or adherent of any kind, paste of any description) may be attached to the walls, woodwork, doors, metal trim, or furniture in the college buildings either in student rooms or in public areas.
- b. Hanging pictures: All dormitory rooms are equipped with picture moldings from which pictures, posters, mirrors and wall shelves can be hung. Picture molding hooks and picture wire may be obtained from the Director of Residence Halls.
- c. Curtain rods and towel racks are college property and are supplied as permanent fixtures of every room. Necessary adjustment will be made by the carpenters if requested. Cafe curtains are not allowed.
- d. Pin-up lamps are not permitted.
- e. When a student moves into a room she is advised to check the room for any damages as listed above. Bring any problems of damage or repairs needed to attention of Director of Residence Halls immediately to avoid fines.

4. Electric Appliances:*

To reduce fire hazard and overloading of electrical circuits, the use of electrical food preparation and ironing appliances is not permitted in dormitory rooms. Kitchens and service rooms are provided in the dormitories for those functions. Reasonable use of other electrical appliances which do not present unusual hazard or high electric load are permitted in dormitory rooms. Small portable electric refrigerators not exceeding 4.5 cubic feet in storage volume, 80 pounds in total gross weight, which require less than 240 watts of electricity in normal operation will be permitted in dormitory rooms provided the room resident assumes full and complete responsibility for acquiring, moving, maintaining, summer storage away from the College and/or final removal of same. The college may not be called upon for crating or shipping these appliances nor for storing them during the summer.

No electric appliance may be used in the dormitories under any circumstances unless the appliance as a whole (not just the cord) has been approved by and bears the seal of Underwriters' Laboratories, Inc. (U.L. Listed).

5. Food Storage: Food not stored in kitchenette or private refrigerators should be kept in tin boxes or in screw-top jars.

6. Automobile Tires:* No automobile tires may be stored in college buildings except in the student's bedroom. Any found in the hallways or any place except in the student's room will be confiscated.

7. Furniture: Student rooms are furnished with beds, chest-of-drawers, desks, bookcases and chairs. Each student should provide a pillow, towels, sheets, pillow-cases (or subscribe for laundry service for these), blankets, and mattress pad. No furniture is to be removed from any student room. If you have double-decker beds in your room and do not wish to leave them stacked, see Mrs. Kitchen.

Beds are NOT to be dismantled or a mattress removed from its bedstead. No mirror is to be separated from the dresser.

8. Hallways:* For fire and safety reasons hallways must be kept clear. Trunks, boxes, etc. must be unpacked within ten days of the opening of college. After that time any student articles stored in the corridors will be confiscated.

9. Health or Sun Lamps:* For medical reasons as well as fire hazard, sunlamps are not to be used in the dormitories.

10. Mattress Pad: A mattress pad must be furnished and used by every student beginning her first night in residence.

11. Rugs:* Rugs of any size will be permitted in student rooms. It must be understood that the owner must assume full responsibility for any rug. No help in the installation or removal of rugs may be requested from the college personnel. Since rugs may not be stored at the college over the summer at the end of the year, you are to take your rug home or send it to be cleaned and stored. If sending to the cleaners, roll it, tie it securely and tag it clearly with your name. If you are planning to be away the first term, indicate the date you wish the rug returned.

*Violation of regulation may carry not only a fine but also confiscation of equipment, article or animal.

The privilege of having large rugs was given with the above understanding and is subject to removal if abused.

12. Water Beds and Beer Kegs:* Such equipment is prohibited in student rooms.
13. Summer Storage:
  - a. SWEET BRIAR ASSUMES NO RESPONSIBILITY FOR DAMAGE OR LOSS OF ARTICLES LEFT AT THE COLLEGE TO BE MOVED OR STORED. STUDENTS ARE ADVISED AGAINST LEAVING ARTICLES OF VALUE IN STORAGE.
  - b. Property without shipping instructions attached, left for one year in a college house by a student after her final departure from college, either through withdrawal or graduation, will be disposed of by the College. As College storage space is very limited, there will be a charge made for articles left longer than 3 months after the departure of the student.
  - c. To provide improved protection for students' belongings, a new method for summer storage has been incorporated. Summer storage is now provided in the trunk storage building at the power house complex. All such storage will be at the students' own risk. While the college will take reasonable steps to protect stored property, it specifically disclaims any liability for damage, theft, fire, water or any other cause. The student is responsible for packing and transporting all items to and from the storage building and for being sure boxes are properly and securely packed. The storage of bicycles and rugs is not to be included in this facility.
  - d.
    - i. Articles must be securely packed. All items such as pillows, bed and table lamps, linens, typewriters and books must be packed in a box, tied securely, and tagged with the owner's name and new room assignment. In all cases the stub should be kept by the student as a receipt and for identification in claiming her storage in the fall. The green tags may be obtained from the Information Center without charge.
    - ii. Chair cushions must be firmly tied to the chair. No other articles may be packed in a chair.
    - iii. Cartons will not be accepted for moving unless they are securely tied. The College will not be responsible for articles left to be shipped home that are not packed and addressed properly.

- e. As the College has no moth-proof store-rooms, students are advised to send blankets home or to a laundry or dry cleaner for cleaning and storage.
- f. If requests to send belongings to students are received after the close of the College in May, they will be prepared for shipment and sent to the owner, express collect, during the months of June and September only. Under no circumstances will packages be sent during the months of July and August.
- g. Every student is expected to clear her room of rubbish and leave it in order as it was on her arrival in September.
- h. At the close of the college year each student, except members of the graduating class, must leave Sweet Briar within twenty-four hours after her final examination and must take with her all of her possessions other than those to be stored at the college and those to be shipped. Graduating students may remain 24 hours after Commencement in Residence after which time all Residence Halls will close for the summer.

C. Closing Hour:

- 1. The campus Closing Hour is 12 midnight, but the only permissible way students may be admitted to the dormitories after 8:00 p.m. is through a key system. Keys are available at the beginning of the college year at: The time of course registration, Gymnasium. (If not procured then, go to the Information Center for a dorm key.)

for cost of: Three dollars (not refundable). These keys are made to fit only the "Key" doors of each dormitory; the key door being the front entrance doorway.*

In case of loss only one duplicate will be issued, that also for a charge of three dollars. Keys may not be duplicated except by the College. Duplicating a key is an honor offense.

A dormitory key may not be borrowed or used by ANYONE other than the student to whom it is issued. When the Administration of the College deems it necessary to change dormitory locks for security reasons, each student will be charged an additional fee of three dollars for a re-issued key.

For security reasons students are under obligation to see that the "key" door is locked after them when entering or leaving the dormitories after 8:00 p.m. The exit likewise is to be through the "key" door only. No door is to be propped open or opened by a student within the building to allow a student or guest to enter after 8:00 p.m.

Students returning to their dorms after 8:00 p.m. are expected to do so in an orderly and quiet manner out of respect for other members of the community. The House Council will punish infractions of this nature.

*Gray Dormitory's front entrance doorway ("key" door) is the door facing the Refectory.

2. Any student who needs to be admitted to a dormitory after 8:00 p.m. and who does not have her own key with her or who never procured one may secure a key temporarily "on loan" for a fee of one dollar. If the student has no money with her, she may sign an I.O.U. due by 2 p.m. the following day.

For a temporary key, the student:

- 1) signs for the key at the Information Center,
- 2) returns it to the Information Center the following day by 2 p.m.

3. When returning to campus after the Closing Hour, students must leave their dates at the key door of the dormitory. Men are not allowed on the campus between the Closing Hour and 6:00 a.m. except to pick up or leave a date and except to participate in Visitation Privileges (see below).

D. Visiting the dormitories:

1. Overnight on campus:

If staying overnight in any place other than her own room (including the Infirmary), a student is urged to leave a note on her door giving full information concerning her whereabouts.

2. Guests in the dormitories:

a. Every overnight guest in the dormitories must be registered by her hostess with the Resident Counselor prior to arrival. No guests may stay in the dormitories more than two consecutive nights.

b. All guests must abide by the dormitory and campus regulations.

3. Male visitors:

a. A student may entertain a male visitor in her dormitory room on:

REGULAR VISITATION

Mondays-Thursdays	12:00 noon to 12:00 midnight
Fridays	12:00 noon to 3:00 a.m.
Saturdays	10:00 a.m. to 3:00 a.m.
Sundays	10:00 a.m. to 12:00 midnight

The exception to this rule is the "Limited Visitation Hall" (fourth floor Glass) where a student living on this hall may entertain a male visitor in her room only on:

LIMITED VISITATION

Mondays-Thursdays	None
Fridays	12:00 noon to 1:00 a.m.
Saturdays	12:00 noon to 1:00 a.m.
Sundays	12:00 noon to 10:00 p.m.

The following steps will be taken by a security officer regarding unattached dates at Sweet Briar after the closing hour:

- i) Individual, or individuals, are to be informed that they must leave the campus.

- ii) If, after a reasonable period of time, he or they persist in staying, a security guard should approach the subject, or subjects, and state, "Gentlemen, or young man, your right or license to stay on this property has expired. I will give you . . . . . minutes to leave or you will be subject to arrest on the charge of trespass."
- b. A student may take her father or brother to her room on any day from 6:00 a.m. to closing hour, but she should see that the other girls on the hall are notified. Such a relative should be signed in if visiting for any length of time.
- c. Each dorm has the right to close the house to men on any particular night. A one-third vote, taken by a secret ballot, of those present and voting at a house meeting at which there is a quorum of two thirds, is required to close the dorm for any one night or succession of nights.
- d. Students are required to sign their male guests in and out on the visitation sheets. Any student entertaining a male guest in the dorm must accompany him at all times. THIS INCLUDES MEETING HIM AT THE DOOR AND ESCORTING HIM OUT OF THE DOOR.*
- e. It is understood that each student hostess will be responsible for the behavior and actions of her guests.
- f. Each House Council shall determine its own means of enforcement for these regulations. Any student, as a member of the Association, shall have the right and be under obligation to protest any violation of the provisions in this section. In the case of persistent disregard of the privacy and safety of others, she shall be expected to file a complaint with the Judicial Committee and the Dean of Student Affairs. The Dean of Student Affairs may at any time bring to the attention of the College Council abuses of these provisions.
- g. The above provisions are subject to a mandatory review annually by College Council, no later than its April meeting.

E. Absence from campus:

1. Each student who is to be absent from campus, especially for overnight, is urged to sign out in the Information Center on a slip provided there. She is reminded to leave sufficient information so that she may be reached in case of emergency. Any change of address should be reported to the Information Center. The number is 804-381-5100. Each student is responsible for removing her signout slip upon her return to campus. An absence-from-campus slip is to be completed in person, not telephoned to the Information Center unless the girl forgets to sign out before leaving the college. No messages to be delivered to other parties may be expected of the attendant at the Information Center. Students missing special academic commitments because of emergency situations are advised to telephone the Office of the Dean (804-381-5534) during office hours.

---

*No unescorted male guest will be allowed to enter the dormitory.

2. Students who are to remain on campus for Thanksgiving or Midyear Recess will be required to sign up on appropriate sheets beforehand so that they may be accommodated in the dormitories and in the dining halls. Students returning from Christmas and Spring Vacations may not arrive on campus before 6:00 a.m. on the designated day of return unless prior notification to students has been posted.

F. Quiet Hour

Please refer to the Student Government Association rules found on page 26.

G. Resident Counselors

A member of the faculty or staff serves as Resident Counselor in several of the dormitories. The Resident Counselor represents the Office of Student Affairs in the dormitory and stands ready to cooperate with the House President and other officials of the Student Government Association in the encouragement of congenial dormitory living. She is available to give counsel on any personal, social or academic problem about which a student wishes to consult her.

There will be a Resident Counselor-on-call each night of the week and over the weekends to handle emergencies. The Counselor-on-call can be reached through the Information Office at any time.

Besides the Resident Counselors, others who are especially prepared to help students are the Dean of Student Affairs, the Dean and the Assistant Dean, the College Physician and the Consulting Psychiatrist, the Chaplain, the faculty advisers and the faculty sponsors of each class.

H. Resident Advisers

Each large residence hall on campus is staffed by at least one student Resident Adviser who is under the guidance of the Office of Student Affairs. Her main concern is for the student as an individual.

Resident Advisers are trained and expected to listen to other students as peers, offer objective alternatives if the case calls for it, refer students to others who may be of more assistance, help whenever possible when emergencies arise in the residence hall and to aid in strengthening the residence hall life at Sweet Briar.

It is our hope that with Resident Counselors, Resident Advisers, House Presidents and Hall Presidents to assist her, a student's adjustment to college life will be a healthy, rewarding one.

I. Keys to Student Rooms

A room key will be available for each student through her Resident Counselor during scheduled hours posted in early September. Securing the key is optional but recommended. Likewise keys to top dresser drawers in Meta Glass are available, also keys to closet doors in Meta Glass. A dollar deposit per key will be required. The deposit will be refunded when each key is turned in.

In case of LOSS of a key, you are asked to report the same to your Resident Counselor.

If you are MOVING from one room to another, you are to turn in to your Resident Counselor the key to your present room and are to secure a key to your new room from the Resident Counselor of your new dorm should you be changing residence halls; if you are remaining in the same dormitory your Resident Counselor will take up your old key and re-issue the new one.

At the end of the college year or at withdrawal, all keys are to be turned in to the Resident Counselor concerned.

Keys are to be exchanged, NOT dresser drawers PLEASE.

Students residing in rooms of multiple occupancy may receive door keys only if each member of the room or suite obtains a key.

If you are LOCKED out of your room, you should contact your roommate regarding entry. If she is not on campus, you may telephone your Resident Counselor up to 10 p.m. After that hour, call a security officer at 5550.

CAUTION: A wait most likely will be necessary.

J. Fire Prevention

1. INTENTIONAL RINGING OF THE FIRE ALARM IS AN EXTREMELY SERIOUS OFFENSE AND WILL BE TREATED ACCORDINGLY WITH SUSPENSION FROM THE COLLEGE BEING THE PENALTY.

2. To ensure unimpeded exit from the buildings, nothing may be placed on the fire escapes or ladders.

3. Fire Prevention Regulations:

a. No fire may be made in any room.

b. No candles may be used in the dormitory rooms. Permission to use candles in the parlors or common rooms must be obtained from the Dean of Student Affairs; any other question of fire prevention should be referred to the Vice President and Treasurer of the College.

c. Smoking is FORBIDDEN in the following places:

(i) Dormitories: in stairwells, halls, and corridors

(ii) Academic buildings except seminar rooms

(iii) Faculty and staff offices unless a faculty or staff member is present and gives permission.

(iv) The Book Shop, Babcock Auditorium, and the two chapels

(v) The Library except in the two smoking lounges in the stacks and in other designated rooms.

4. Through understanding and cooperation the campus fire department assists in the avoidance of possible accidents.

Fire drills are held during the night and during the day as announced or unannounced fire drills or fire escape drills. They are designed to promote familiarity with exits and to insure proper training in case of emergency. The hall presidents will assist the house president in clearing the floor. A faculty fire team also assists, and takes charge of the students once they have left the buildings.

Students are reminded that they are liable for any damage to property or for injury to others resulting from their negligence. Accordingly students are cautioned to be careful when lighting, smoking, and putting out cigarettes. Regulation ashtrays and metal waste cans may be purchased at the Book Shop.

SOCIAL REGULATIONS

A. Statement of Compliance

Sweet Briar College provides notice of intent to comply with the regulations effectuating Title IX of the Higher Education Amendments of 1972 as amended by Public Law 93-568. We intend to adhere to the letter and spirit of the law through a policy of nondiscrimination on the basis of sex in all College operations. This policy applies in particular to our education program, to employees therein and to admissions thereto save where excepted under subpart C 86.15 (a). In addition, Sweet Briar College adheres to a policy of nondiscrimination on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin with respect to its educational program and activities, employees, financial aid awards and admission.

B. Statement on Discipline

Any student accepting a place at Sweet Briar should know that the College will not tolerate illegal acts or extremes of social behavior which ignore the rights of others or are injurious to the individual, the community, or the College itself.

In any extreme or clearly dangerous situation the judgment of the President suffices to enforce a decision of temporary suspension and removal from the College until a hearing before the appropriate committee can be arranged. This procedure will be accomplished as quickly as possible.

Any student unwilling to acknowledge such authority on the part of the College is advised to withdraw.

The College reserves the right to exclude at any time, following established procedures that protect individual rights, any student whose conduct or academic standing it regards as unacceptable in a community of scholars and students.

C. Drinking Regulations

Consumption of alcoholic beverages at Sweet Briar College, either by students or their guests, shall be controlled by the laws of Virginia and/or Amherst County. In addition, college regulations prohibit consumption of alcoholic beverages in all academic or public areas of the college, by either students or their guests, with the exception of the Chef's Kitchen, within the Boat House, and the Picnic Grounds. In the Wailes Center purchase or consumption is limited to beer for those 18 years and older, or wine for those 21 and older: Honor Code principles apply.

The above-mentioned laws make illegal the following:

1. The sale of alcoholic beverages to persons under 21 years of age (beer may be sold to those 18 years and older).
2. The falsification of age by persons under 21 in order to purchase alcoholic beverages.
3. The purchase of alcoholic beverages for another person when there is reason to believe that person is under 21.
4. The serving of alcoholic beverages (except beer to those 18 years and over) to any person under 21 whether in a private home, club, party, or other place.
5. Students are further reminded of State regulations which make unlawful the transporting of alcoholic beverages unless containerized in paper bags or cartons which render the identification of the contents unrecognizable. College regulations comply with state law to specifically include the carrying of alcoholic beverages across the campus to those areas where their consumption is authorized.

The college reminds all students that the courts of the state have held that any person who serves alcoholic beverages to a minor, or, for that matter to a non-minor, may become liable for any resulting accident or injury which occurs. Either criminal or civil liability, or both, may result in such cases if it can be demonstrated that such action was a contributing cause of the accident or injury.

It shall be the responsibility of each member of the Sweet Briar community to know and to comply with all pertinent laws and college regulations and, further, to help prevent any abuses or excesses stemming from the use of alcoholic beverages. In particular, students are reminded of their general responsibility for the safety and welfare of one another, as well as their specific responsibility to the college community for the highest standards of conduct and behavior, not only of themselves but also of their guests.

Any special permission for exceptions to the regulations above must be obtained from the Dean of Student Affairs. It should be noted that, in general, beer may be served, with permission, at college-approved social functions held in public areas. The beer to be served under these conditions is to be purchased by the student chairman of the party and to be served by the College Food Service. No outside help may be used.

D. Statement of Drug Policy of Sweet Briar College

1. According to Virginia State Law, it is illegal to possess or distribute a wide variety of drugs. The chart below specifies the types of controlled drugs as well as the penalties for their distribution and use.
2. Civil authorities have the responsibility for law enforcement and may search a student's room if they have evidence that the law is being broken. As a protection for the rights of students the College has stated, however, that it will not condone such a search unless a proper legal warrant has been obtained.
3. As an educational institution, Sweet Briar is concerned with informing students of the personal and community consequences of the use of drugs and thus with helping them make responsible decisions in this area. Any student who approaches an official of the College seeking help or treatment for a drug problem will be given every possible assistance. In this case, all disclosures by the student will be treated with complete confidentiality, and no disciplinary action will be taken. A psychiatrist as well as a peer counseling group are available to counsel students seeking help with drug problems. Also, literature on drugs is on reserve in the Mary Helen Cochran Library.
4. In the event that an incident of drug abuse comes to the attention of the Administration other than by self-report, the following guidelines will determine the course of action to be taken:
  - a) Any student found to have illegal drugs (including marijuana) on campus will, at the discretion of the Dean of Student Affairs, be subject to a probationary status, will be advised to seek counseling, or will be referred to the Judicial Committee for possible disciplinary action, especially in the case of a repeated offense. In the latter instance the complaint may recommend any one of a range of penalties including expulsion.
  - b) Any student found to be engaging in the sale or distribution of illegal drugs on campus or for use on campus will be reported immediately to appropriate civil authorities. In such a case the Administration will bring a complaint before the Judicial Committee recommending expulsion from the College.
  - c) Any non-student found to be engaging in the sale or distribution of illegal drugs at Sweet Briar will likewise be reported immediately to civil authorities, and, if applicable, a complaint will be filed with appropriate college authority.
5. Because of the many issues involved, each report of possible drug abuse off campus will be considered in relation to time, place, and circumstances of the instance in question. In the event of such an abuse in which Sweet Briar may be directly or indirectly involved, the Administration reserves the right to file a complaint with the Judicial Committee or the appropriate authority, regardless of parallel legal proceedings.

RECREATIONAL AND ADDITIONAL CAMPUS FACILITIES*A. Boat House

It is hoped that students and guests not only will enjoy the Boat House but will treat it with kindness and respect in fairness to others who will follow you and in fairness to those who must maintain the area. With this thought in mind, the following procedure is in effect:

1. When you sign up at the Information Center to reserve the Boat House, you pay a deposit of fifteen dollars (subject to increase if experience proves this amount too small). This deposit will be returned if you have left the building clean and presentable for the next group. If not, the entire amount will serve as a fine and be forfeited; in addition, if any damage has occurred you will be billed accordingly. Deadline for return of deposit: 2 weeks after use of Boat House.

Only one person is to sign to reserve the Boat House and that student will be responsible for the care of the building and property and for the behavior of all members of the party. She should remain at the party until it is over and be the last to leave. She should call a security officer if the party is getting out of control (5550). Use telephone on the boat dock. The hostess should bear in mind that the larger her group, the greater responsibility she assumes. The recommended outside limits are 30 people for each lounge or 60 for both.

2. The hostess notifies a security officer (5550) when she is ready to go to the Boat House and a security officer will unlock the building, will throw the latch on the entrance door to be certain it is unlocked from the inside and will check to see that everything is in order.
3. Rules or Expectations
  - a. Doors are unlocked from both sides.
  - b. The Virginia State law applies to the consumption of alcoholic beverages. For the law, see page 68.
  - c. Care of furniture and property is expected.
  - d. The fire is to be left as is with the screen placed in front of the fireplace for protection; a security officer will extinguish it.
  - e. The building is to be left in good order: debris, and empty bottles and cans are to be put in waste containers at the main entrance. The floor is to be swept and trash put in waste receptacles.
  - f. Carefulness is urged in opening and closing the doors and windows to avoid glass breakage.
  - g. There is to be no parking past the hedge. The roadway by the Boat House is to be an open thoroughfare.
  - h. The lower level is not to be used as a party area.
4. Students and guests must leave the Boat House by 12 midnight Sunday-Thursday, 1 A.M. Friday and Saturday. Please do not wait for a security officer to evict you as this delays his rounds.

Start cleaning and clearing out at least 15 minutes before dead-line hours. Report to a security officer immediately upon reaching the main campus so he can go down to lock the Boat House. If no officer is around, notify the Information Center.

5. Reminders:

- a. Swimming is permitted only when a lake council member is present and only members of the Sweet Briar community may swim in the lake.
- b. Boating is allowed until dusk. The use of canoes is restricted to the Sweet Briar students who have passed the canoeing test. The use of rowboats, however, is accorded guests during daylight hours provided they are accompanied by a Sweet Briar student and provided there is no interference with a class in progress at the lake.
- c. Security officers make periodic checks of all campus buildings and areas and can be expected to stop at the Boat House during any party.

  - b. The capacity of the rowboats is five persons.

The Sweet Briar College Health Service

The Sweet Briar College Health Service is dedicated to the ideal of helping each student learn to assume personal responsibility for her own health and well-being and maintain a state of positive good health so that she may successfully perform her academic duties and derive a full measure of benefit and satisfaction from her college experience.

The Service is staffed by the College Physician (part time), a College Psychiatrist (part time), and four registered nurses. Consulting services in all medical specialties are available in Lynchburg, 14 miles distant from the College. The Amherst County Rescue Squad, a volunteer organization, may be called upon in emergencies and provides prompt transportation to the Emergency Room of Lynchburg General-Marshall Lodge Hospital. The College Physician holds scheduled office hours while the College is in session. In case of emergency outside of the scheduled office hours, the Nurse in charge will inform the Physician and secure instructions as to procedure.

With the exceptions noted below, service for students is provided as a part of the comprehensive college fee and is as follows:

A. Out-patient:

1. The College Physician may be consulted at the Harley Student Health Center during the scheduled office hours. Specific office hours of the physician and the nurses are listed in the Directory of Hours on page 107.
2. The College Psychiatrist sees patients by appointment on Wednesdays in the lounge of the Health Center. A student desiring a consultation should telephone the Health Center to make an appointment. The service provided consists of counselling. Intensive therapy is not provided. Consultations are normally limited to 30 minutes. The service is provided on campus by the College without charge. If the student and the Psychiatrist agree that an extended series of consultations will be helpful, arrangements may be made by mutual agreement, with the student or her family paying the usual fee of the Psychiatrist.

B. In patient: In-patient services are provided for students ill enough to need bed care. If confinement in the Health Center seems likely to exceed five days, the student or her family will be advised. The comprehensive fee for resident students covers office visits to the College Physician, consultation with the College Psychiatrist as specified above, and bed care in the Health Center up to five days without extra charge. For each additional day of care in the Health Center, a charge of $5.00 is made.

C. On a limited out-patient basis, the Health Service makes provision for the employees and faculty of the College. Employees and faculty may consult the College Physician during scheduled office hours only. No house calls can be made and no bed care in the Health Center provided. Since the Health Service is available only while the College is in session, every employee, faculty member, and family member is advised to have a personal physician in the local community. Treatments prescribed by a personal physician may be given at the Health Center while the College is in session. There is no charge for employees of the College. Emergency procedures for employees and their families are handled in the same manner as for students.

- D. Dispensing of medication: For legal reasons the Health Center does not dispense medication except in an extreme emergency. The physician will prescribe medications needed by a student. The prescriptions will be delivered daily at a specified time to the Information Center by a local Amherst pharmacy. Only the person for whom the drug is prescribed will be permitted to pick up the medicine. A charge will be made to the student by the pharmacy. There will be a charge to the students, faculty and employees for injections, dressings, lab work, etc.
- E. The College Physician and the College Psychiatrist serve, in relation to both students and employees and their families, in accordance with the ethical standards of the medical profession. All information received by the College Physician and the College Psychiatrist in the discharge of their professional duties, whether from students or members of the staff or their families, is privileged and confidential and will not be divulged without the consent, given in advance, of the patient unless required by law, or if in the judgment of the College Physician or the College Psychiatrist a serious threat to the welfare of the patient or the community may arise out of the patient's medical problems.
- F. The College Physician and the College Psychiatrist share with the department of Physical Education responsibility for the College's program of health education. There is an accredited course in health education open to all four classes under the department of Physical Education. In addition, the Health Service and the Department of Physical Education jointly undertake to provide information on the problems affecting the physical and mental health of the community. From time to time there are lectures, films and other means of disseminating information and providing for the discussion of problems and the answering of questions relating to the physical and mental health of the community. Informational materials in the form of books and pamphlets on sex, drugs and other matters of health are available in the Infirmary, the Library and some of the residence halls.
- G. Since the Health Service has the responsibility for the medical care of the students, it is urged that all referrals to consulting specialists be arranged through the Health Center. The Health Service assumes no responsibility when students choose to consult outside physicians independently of the Health Center.
- H. In cases of extreme emergencies, the nurse on duty may leave the Health Center and go to the site of the emergency on campus to administer first aid and make an evaluation. A member of the staff will cover the Health Center during that time.
- I. The Health Service Staff cannot accept the responsibility of treating visitors to the campus. Under the Good Samaritan Law, however, treatment will be administered to campus guests on an out-patient basis in an emergency. Guests can also be referred to local physicians for treatment.

Religious Life and Services

Sweet Briar is an independent college without denominational affiliation. Nevertheless, it has always stressed the cultivation of spiritual values as essential to true education.

From its beginning, Sweet Briar College has emphasized cooperation between people of faith within and beyond the Christian community. Even before the great modern ecumenical movement gained momentum, ecumenism was practiced at Sweet Briar and continues to be. Undoubtedly, the varied religious backgrounds of both faculty members and students enrich the whole life of the campus community. However, the individual's participation in either the academic study of religion or the College worship services is entirely voluntary.

The religious life of the College is centered in The Sweet Briar Memorial Chapel. Completed in 1966, the Chapel was dedicated on April 23, 1967, with world-renowned leaders of various denominations participating.

Sunday services are held in the main Chapel. The College Chaplain normally is the minister, although during the year, guest ministers from many religious traditions are invited to speak. Holy Communion is celebrated at least once each term in the Sunday service.

A weekly Chapel service is held on Tuesday at 12:00 o'clock. Faculty members, students, and occasionally guest ministers lead these services. There is no set form, each leader being responsible for the order of service which is used. For example, during the year there are Quaker meetings, religious plays and concerts, as well as more formal addresses. A service of Holy Communion is also held on Wednesday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock.

The small chapel is used for many different services. The Roman Catholic Mass is celebrated here on a regular schedule by a priest from the Diocesan Campus Ministry. The Sunday schedule of masses at Holy Cross Church, 810 Clay Street, Lynchburg is posted on the Chaplain's bulletin board. Mass here on campus may be used to count for the weekly obligation should the Sunday Mass be missed. The small chapel is available for other services when desired.

Students who prefer their own denominational service may attend the local churches of Amherst (Baptist, Episcopal, Methodist, and Presbyterian) or of Lynchburg (besides the aforementioned, Lutheran, Christian Science, Latter Day Saints, Greek Orthodox, United Church of Christ, Unitarian, Nazarene, and others). Jewish students normally attend the Agudath Sholom Synagogue in Lynchburg.

The Fellowship of Christians United in Service (F.O.C.U.S.) is the only organized religious group on campus. It sponsors certain worship services and provides an outlet for social service work in the local community and in Lynchburg.

Students provide the membership of the Altar Guild, and serve on the joint faculty-student Church & Chapel Committee. This Committee is responsible for the direction and growth of the religious life of the College. It is concerned with the arrangement of the college worship services and it chooses philanthropic projects for which the church offerings are used.

Besides the Annual Religious Conference, under the auspices of F.O.C.U.S., there are many occasions at meals or elsewhere, for informal discussion of religious questions with visiting clergymen, with the Chaplain, or with other members of the faculty.

The College Chaplain is The Rev. Sallie A. Carter.

HONORARY ORGANIZATIONS

A. Aints and Asses/Paint and Patches

Aints and Asses, as the name should indicate, is a unique organization on campus. Its members, chosen for their wit and lack of restraint, dress in manner unorthodox and behave in manner even more so.

The Aints and Asses were originally formed to take off on Paint and Patches productions, but now, being masters of comedy, the Asses perform several original skits during the year to entertain the students. When spring arrives, one can see them, out in full force, blowing their whistles to keep students from trampling the grass.

Paint and Patches, Sweet Briar's dramatic club, was organized for the purpose of creating and developing an active interest in all branches of drama and to promote a deeper knowledge of the technique of dramatic art.

P & P also attempts to provide entertainment for the entire community and to be of assistance in any theatrical undertaking on campus.

Eligibility for membership in Paint and Patches is determined by interest, achievement, and lots of hard work. The many areas of the club include scenery design, properties, lights, makeup and costumes which provide opportunities for membership to those interested in various branches of the theatre.

B. Bum Chums/Q.V.

"Hallelujah, I'm a Bum!" sung gaily, echoes through the halls of Sweet Briar the night of spring step singing as the Bum Chums tap their ten new members. In addition to an interest in furthering the Lynchburg-Amherst area relations with the College, the Bum Chums are chosen for their good spirit, interest, and general participation in the activities of the College.

Throughout their junior year the "notorious ten" serve as useful members of the community. As a service organization, the Bums sponsor the Bloodmobile, the Christmas Bazaar, a foster child, and numerous service projects. Not least among their projects are their famed shows, the Bum Chum Inns. Also, the Bum Chums make a fun-loving effort to harass their rival group, the secret Q.V.'s.

A girl who is chosen to be a Q.V. is not taking on a new job; she is continuing her interest and work for the class. The members of this sophomore honorary society are elected by their classmates in the spring of their freshmen year for the spirit and enthusiasm they have displayed. The Q.V.'s goal, that of spirit and unity, is an intangible and challenging one for each new group to work toward meeting. Their purpose is to promote class spirit and their names are kept secret until Spring Step Singing of their sophomore year.

C. Chung Mungs/Tau Phi

This upperclass honorary society is composed of thirteen outstanding juniors and seniors, known for their friendliness, cheerfulness, enthusiasm and general interest in Sweet Briar. Their activities include weekly sales of goodies in the dorms and daily sponsoring of the "announcing services" in both Refectories. It is characteristic of this group to constantly seek new areas of activity which will benefit the College; they are always coming to the College with new ideas for new drives.

In the moments not occupied by such worthwhile pursuits the Chung Mungs must deal with the serious and sober-minded Tau Phi's, harassing and ruffling their intellectual demeanor. Whatever these ghostly thirteen do, they continue to remind us of the need of others and prove that giving need not be a sober affair. A familiar and integral element of Sweet Briar life is this fun-loving group who so gaily chant "Glory, glory, I'm a Chung Mung . . ."

Tau Phi is an honorary society organized for the purpose of upholding the principle of a liberal arts education—the broadening of the mind by contact with the many fields of human knowledge. The membership is composed of a limited number of upper classmen chosen in recognition of their scholarship, character, and aesthetic sensitivity, and who, by their attitude and effort, stimulate a lively interest and participation in the intellectual growth of Sweet Briar College. Throughout the year the society assists the Lectures Committee to encourage attendance at lectures, plays, and concerts, and to arrange hospitality for visiting speakers. Every other year Tau Phi is responsible for the organization and presentation of TEMPO, an event—or series of events—of exceptional cultural or intellectual interest.

D. Phi Beta Kappa

In 1949, the United Chapters of Phi Beta Kappa granted a chapter, Theta of Virginia, to Sweet Briar College. Election to membership depends not only on excellent academic record but on evidence of broad cultural interests, scholarly achievement, and promise of intellectual growth.

The number of seniors elected to Phi Beta Kappa rarely exceeds 10% of the class and may never exceed 15%. A limited number of juniors may be considered for election.

E. Sweet Tones/Earphones

Sixteen girls from the sophomore, junior and senior classes compose the Sweet Tones, Sweet Briar's small independent singing group which specializes in interesting arrangements of popular music. Tryouts are held each spring and the following year the group entertains for various social events on campus such as the Bum Chum Inns, Alumnae meetings, Board meetings, and for various organizations in the Lynchburg-Amherst area.

The newest group on campus is also the loudest! They are known as the Earphones.

The tone-deaf, loud mouthed song lovers keep the campus singing (or clanging) when they rise to the occasion with a song. They are distinguished not only by their voices, but by their earmuffs and kazoos.

They do not try to imitate the Sweet Tones (no one could). They just want the Sweet Tones to remember that not everyone is blessed with a tear-jerking voice.

CLUBS AND COMMITTEES

A. Art Association

The Art Association is in charge of sponsoring art exhibitions and lectures. Any interested girls can join.

B. Athletic Association

An Intramural program is also available for all community members for participation in many activities on an informal basis during the academic year. Specific activities sponsored by A.A. are:

1. Dance

Sweet Briar Dance Theatre strives to incorporate all aspects of the theater experience through creative dance. Drawing heavily on the choreographic talents of its members. Dance Theater presents many on-campus performances. Often performances draw upon the talent of members of the community and all try-outs are open to the entire campus. New members are chosen on the basis of both technical competence and interest in dance at Sweet Briar.

In addition to performing on campus, the group represents Sweet Briar at several Dance Festivals in Virginia, as well as entertaining diverse area groups. Fostering a general interest in all forms of dance, Sweet Briar Dance Theater invites guest artists for master technique classes and acts as a hostess to visiting dance companies who perform at Sweet Briar through the Lectures Committee.

2. Intramurals

The purpose of the Intramural activities is to promote interdorm sports, student-faculty sports, and to provide activities for those interested in intracollegiate sports. Each dorm elects representatives for intracollegiate sports in the fall and participates throughout the year in a variety of activities to accumulate points for an A.A. sponsored party.

It is the purpose of the Riding Council to assist in the operation of the overall riding program at Sweet Briar College. It lends spirit and leadership on a student level to the entire program. Some of the objectives of the Riding Council are:

- To help students who are not qualified to hack alone.
- To assist non-riders in learning about the riding program.
- To function as a part of the Athletic Association of the College.
- To assist in the formulation and administration of the Rules and Regulations of the Riding Program.
- To promote greater interest in the overall riding program for all levels.

The Riding Council Pamphlet should be consulted for complete information.

The specific variety sports will also sponsor intracollegiate competition in their own sport throughout the year.

C. Career Counseling

The Career Counseling Committee is composed of students representing each class. The students advise the Career Planning Office of programs which would interest the student body. A special project which the committee has undertaken will provide a pamphlet describing career opportunities from each major field in the college curriculum. See page 89.

D. Center of Italian Culture

The Center of Italian Culture was organized in response to the growing interest in the heritage of modern Italy—its culture, its language, its history. Members of the organization are eager to spread their enthusiasm and do so by sponsoring various activities such as literary discussions, theatrical productions, current lectures and films, and informal social gatherings. In addition, the Center seeks to keep the community informed of events in other cities which are relevant to its goal of promoting an understanding of Italian culture. All members of Sweet Briar are invited to join the Center of Italian Culture.

E. Challenge

Challenge is an organization designed to assist students wishing to work in Amherst County. It provides students with the opportunity to become involved within the community through work with children and families in need. With professional assistance and advice each student will determine the services needed to meet individual situations. Students will work with and be responsible to local agencies.

The goal is to establish a working and beneficial relationship which will broaden the perspectives of both the workers and the recipients of the program. Hopefully Challenge will increase the student's awareness of community problems as well as materially and psychologically benefit the families involved.

These proposals must pass through the Faculty Instruction Committee and then a full meeting of the Faculty before becoming effective. See also page 20.

Throughout the year the club sponsors several "Petits Déjeuners Français", films and lectures as well as "La Table Française", a table in the Refectory for those who wish to engage in informal french conversation during lunch. "Vive la France et vive les Français!"

J. F.O.C.U.S.

Any person in the college community may be a member of F.O.C.U.S. and shall have the privilege of voting.

The Cabinet, consisting of the executive officers, committee chairmen, faculty advisers and two freshmen representatives, is the executive body of F.O.C.U.S. and has the power to make executive decisions in relation to policies and program. There are seven planned meetings a year as well as a fall and spring retreat for the discussion and evaluation of the F.O.C.U.S. program and a chance to make the organization more responsive to the needs of the community.

Activities include various parties for children in the local community, services to the nursing homes and day-care centers, an Annual Religious Conference and many religious-oriented programs like Prayer Breakfast and Bible Study.

The Infinity Association is responsible for the photography exhibits and contests sponsored on Sweet Briar Campus. Membership is open to anyone interested and all members have access to a darkroom to develop and print their own films.

O. Instruction Committee

The Instruction Committee is made up of three representatives, chosen from the Curriculum Committee, one from the Humanities, one from the Natural Sciences, and one from the Social Sciences. These three representatives are members of the Instruction Committee of the Faculty and sit in on their scheduled meetings where they can give their views on the proposed topics of discussion.

P. Orientation Committee

The Orientation Committee is composed of a junior chairman who, with the help of a sophomore co-chairman, supervises the work of six sophomore committees directed by six underclass chairmen: the activities committee, the entertainment committee, the publicity committee, the mixer committee, the facebook and name tag committee. Other committee members are needed just to help out, but MOST important are the Big Sisters whose function is representative of the purpose of the entire orientation program which is to help the incoming new students to adjust to college life at Sweet Briar. See also page 21.

Q. Student Affairs Committee

The Student Affairs Committee, composed of one representative from each class, is the student committee which meets with the Board of Overseers twice a year. At each of these meetings, the student body's plans, hopes, and activities are discussed. This committee is a vital link between the students and the Board.

R. Student Development Committee

The Student Development Committee is a group of 13 students who work together with the Head of the Development Office to raise money for Sweet Briar which is allocated by an annual vote of the entire student body. The committee is responsible for keeping members of the Sweet Briar community informed of any money-making projects and urging their cooperation and support in such projects.

S. Student Guides & Hostesses

Student Guides and Hostesses serve a vital function to the Admission Office in presenting the College to visitors, and also in sharing with the Admission Office their impressions of the prospective students. The prospective student's visit with the guide and/or hostess is often a determining factor in her reaction to Sweet Briar.

Student Guides show prospective students and other guests around the campus. Each guide volunteers one hour of the week during which she is available to give tours of the campus. A chairman, who is appointed by the Admission Office, co-ordinates the activities of the guides. At the end of the year ten Guides who have been especially outstanding in giving of themselves and their time are chosen as Honor Guides. Freshmen are eligible to be Guides after the Fall Term. Anyone who is interested in being a volunteer Guide should contact the Admission Office.

Student Hostesses are headed by the Overnight Hostess Chairman. Hostesses entertain prospective students who wish to spend an overnight in the dormitory. Those who are interested in being a Hostess may volunteer at house meetings in the early fall. The Chairman is responsible for placing the prospective student with a hostess.

T. Sweet Briar Singers

The Sweet Briar Singers, a group of 30 to 40 students, perform several concerts a year. The repertory, both sacred and secular, is drawn from the best traditions in choral literature. Some concerts are done in conjunction with men's college choral groups. Admission is by audition at the beginning of the college year.

U. Young Americans for Freedom

Young Americans for Freedom (Y.A.F.) is open to any interested student. It is an organization designed to increase awareness and understanding of current political issues by promoting campus-wide activities and serving as a forum for discussion.

V. Young Republicans

Organized to stimulate campus interest in current political affairs, the Young Republican Club at Sweet Briar is active on the local, state, and national scenes in cooperation with the College Republican Federation of Virginia. Not only does the club sponsor prominent speakers, it initiates joint activities, workshops, and mixers with neighboring undergraduate and graduate schools. Members are kept busy throughout the year campaigning, doing precinct work, and service projects. The club welcomes everyone at the monthly meetings, and encourages those generally supporting the Republican Party to join.

Other clubs and committees not previously mentioned (i.e., French Club, Spanish Club, Bridge Club, and Ski Club) are open to all students and will hold meetings early in September. All clubs and committees will post signs as to meeting dates and places for all interested students.

STUDENT PUBLICATIONS

A. The Brambler

The Brambler is the college literary magazine. By publishing poetry, prose, art work, music or any other creative endeavor of fine quality contributed by the four classes and occasionally by the faculty, The Brambler aims to recognize and to stimulate creativity at Sweet Briar and to bring varied and vital enjoyment to all readers.

B. The Briar Patch

The Briar Patch, the Sweet Briar annual, is published each spring. In the pages of The Briar Patch the staff tries to give all aspects of college life, especially the outstanding events of that year, which will serve as a permanent record and reminder when the year is over.

C. The Students' Handbook

The aim of the Students' Handbook is to acquaint students with the rules, activities and organizations of Sweet Briar and to introduce the honor system which governs every aspect of life here. The Students' Handbook forms an important source of reference throughout the year. It is published annually; a copy is sent to each freshman in the summer while upperclassmen receive copies upon return to the College in the fall.

D. The Sweet Briar News

The Sweet Briar News is the weekly newspaper published by the students. It aims to give the students, faculty, and community reports of all the news which will be of interest to them. All students and especially freshmen whether they have had experience on school newspapers or not, are urged to try out for positions on the staff. Parents are invited to subscribe and keep up with campus events.
